A·D·C Summer Seminar
VERITAS

Soak up summertime fun with a getaway to the mountains. Earn CLE, including 1 hour each of ethics and competence issues credits. Learn how to better run your practice. Spend time with your family, friends, or along, hiking through the wildflowers, swimming in the pools or at the lake, and enjoy camaraderie with your fellow ADC colleagues. This is a “Do Not Miss” opportunity.

MCLE Information
This activity has been approved for Minimum Continuing Legal Education credit by the State Bar of California in the amount of 3.75 hours, including 1 hour for Ethics and 1 hour for Competence Issues. The ADCNCN certifies that this activity conforms to the standards for approved education activities prescribed by the rules and regulations of the State Bar of California and the Nevada Board of Continuing Legal Education.

8:00 am – 9:00 am Women In the Law Breakfast

9:00 am – 10:00 am What Not to Do – Ethics Lessons Learned from Fictional Attorneys
MCLE: 1 Hour, Legal Ethics

You know that feeling you get when you want to scream at the screen because a television show lawyer mishandled a legal ethics dilemma? In this session, we will set the stage with examples of how fictional attorneys handled a thorny ethics issue, and then break down how the attorney got it wrong (or right) by applying the California Rules of Professional Conduct. You may find that even Saul Goodman complies with the rules now and then. Attendee active participation is encouraged.

- Joseph J. De Hope, Jr., Hinshaw & Culberstson LLP

10:00 am – 10:15 am Break

10:15 am – 12:00 pm You Are Not Immune - Avoiding Malpractice Claims by Carriers

All attorneys dread the “m-word”. Nevertheless, malpractice claims by insurance carriers against their own retained defense counsel are a growing trend in defense litigation. This session will present an interactive discussion for veteran and new practitioners, with a particular emphasis on the issues, considerations, and communications critical to avoiding the “m-word” in your defense practice.
